

Don't Worry About the Future

The good news is that worry is an optional misery.

- God will be with me when I'm distressed.

(ref: Isaiah 43:2)

When Jesus is near, you lose fear.

Worry is a terrible witness to seekers.

- God will watch over me when I'm confused.

God wants to be your guide. (ref: Psalm 32:8)

What you need when you face the future is perspective.

(ref: Proverbs 3:5-6)

- God will go before me when I'm afraid.

(ref: Deuteronomy 31:8; Isaiah 65:24; John 14:1-2)

- God will fight for me when I'm attacked.

Remember who is in charge. (ref: Psalm 118:6)

Let God defend you. (ref: Psalm 18:17-18)

If it is true, you listen and learn from it.

If it is untrue, you ignore and forget it.

1 Corinthians 10:13

Never will more be put on you, than will be put in you.

- God will work in me until I am completed.

Philippians 1:6; John 10:28

One thing God cannot do: God cannot break a promise.

Isaiah 46:3-5

FIRST

Admit to God, I worry!

SECOND

Ask God to give you the strength to trust Him.

THIRD

Expect Him to keep His promises.

Project 137

We are in the middle of a global pandemic; our kids are back in school and we have so many challenges in our Community and our Country. Beginning on August 16th through December 31st, we are joining together for 137 days of prayer. Luke 1:37 says "For with God, all things are possible". Join this movement as we pray together every day for our World at 1:37pm!

From our website homepage you can see the Project 137 tab at the top, to the right. When you click on it, it will take you to a virtual live prayer wall.

Senior Breakfast

Please join us on Wednesday, September 16 at 9:00am in the New Hope Campus Student Center for a delicious breakfast and wonderful fellowship.

Churches of Gaston County Prayer Walk

Join us on September 12 at 8:00AM in the parking lot of First United Methodist Church, 109 E Franklin Blvd for a NON-political prayer walk to show Love, Hope, Unity & Jesus. No political signs or dress attire will be allowed.
